

lyric:Anis Moin

sensation of 'New Year' watch, listen, feel this, it's the spring that is on the way this spring seems to be happier than ever the happy tune of freedom is coming with spring

New Year's Day flowers got coloured by the lovers' blood listen by your heart the message of flowers stand up, stand up to honour of 'sensation of 'New Year's Day on the cloth put a sign of friend, that sweetheart who opened a door to freedom's quarter with its life blessed new year(nowrooz)2 lets take each others hand and sing entirely together /assembled

We guard the faith in the goodness

"If sorrow raises armies to shed the blood of lovers

Me and my cupbearer get united and destroy the foundation of sadness"
